

CODE OF CONDUCT

NASSCOM aims to provide a memorable and learning experience to the winner of the NASSCOM Student Innovation Awards. To the best of our abilities, we intend to aid and guide the student traveling to India to one of our member companies.

As a student traveling on NASSCOM's responsibility, you are required to read, understand and sign the code of conduct expected from you for the duration of this trip.

- 1) I understand that this trip is being undertaken for educational purposes and any activity carried out beyond NASSCOM's provided agenda will be my responsibility.
- 2) I understand that NASSCOM has provided me with accommodation for single occupancy and will bear the accommodation charges for me alone.
- 3) Any changes in the flight tickets (other than that discussed with NASSCOM) will be borne by me.
- 4) I ensure that I will keep the hosting company and NASSCOM informed about my whereabouts, for my safety.
- 5) I will disclose any medical conditions that are pertinent to the trip.
- 6) I will uphold the integrity of NASSCOM and the hosting company and behave in a professional manner at all times.
- 7) I will fully disclose all information relevant to the trip that aids NASSCOM to ensure my safety.
- 8) I understand that NASSCOM is NOT RESPONSIBLE for any problem, misconduct, misdemeanor or change of plans that is not reported to them in advance.

By signing the document, I agree to the code of conduct presented by NASSCOM.
